LORDSHIPS.

WE the Retaylers of Eaſt-India Silks, being more then a Thouſand Families, humbly conceive, ſhould the Prohibition Bill paſs into an Act, it would wholy diſinable us to diſpoſe of our Stocks to half the Coſt.

Therefore we humbly Intreat your Lordſhips, to take the like care of us, as you did when the Lutſtrings, and Allamods were Prohibited: That our Goods may be Sealed in the ſame manner, and the like liberty of Market allow'd us.
